Francis H. Morse.

Francis H. Morse, 71, after a severe illness of seven months, died Saturday afternoon about 2 o'clock in his home on the Dummerston hill road. He was one of six children of John Henry and Eliza (Nichols) Morse, and was born October 29, 1840, on the place where he died. His grandfather came there, following a blazed trail, cleared the farm and settled there more than a century ago. Since then the farm has been in the family. His father died 21 years ago, and after that his mother remained in the home and kept house for him until about six years ago, when he married Miss Clara Woolley of Brookline. He leaves no children.
Mr. Morse was a Civil war veteran, having seen three years of active service in the army. He was a volunteer in Company E, 11th Vermont regiment.
He received injuries from which he never recovered. A rifle ball injured one knee, causing him to be very lame at times, so that he often had to use two canes in order to go about. He was an industrious, hard-working farmer, often laboring under serious difficulties.Besides his wife, Mr. Morse leaves his aged mother, who is 96 years old, two daughters, Mrs. Charles Warren of Fair-lee and Mrs. T. M. Allbee, and one brother, J. S. Morse of this place.
The funeral was held in his late home Tuesday at 2 o'clock. Rev. E. S. Harrison officiating. Mrs. W. E. Steilman sang two selections, "Rock of Ages" and "One sweetly solemn thought." The burial took place beside his father in the family lot in the Dummerston Hill cemetery. Relatives and acquaintances from this town and Dummerston attended the funeral, also Mrs. Park Holland and Mark Allbee of Townshend. The bearers were Wesley Rockwell, James Bettlerley, George Chamberlin and William Hescock.

John W. Stewart, died in her home at 73 Spring street, Springfield, Mass., Saturday evening after an illness of several months. She was born in West Brattleboro and was a daughter of Harris and Susan Stockwell. She spent her early life here and went to Springfield about 10 years ago. She was a member of Lucy Webb Hayes Rebekeh lodge, Abraham Lincoln circle of the Grand Army, Evening Star lodge of Manchester Unity, Old Ladies and Adelphi chapter, ers, Charles J. and Henry A. Stockwell service at the grave in Oak Grove cemetery. Among those present were Gertrude S. Stockwell and Henry A.

Stockwell of this village and Mrs. Augusta Vinton, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Stetson, Mrs. A. G. Harvey, Mrs. Paulina they are well pleased with their new location and employment.D. M. Stockwell of South Hadley, Mass., and his daughter, Mrs. Adeline Winchester, are spending several days at Mr. Stockwell's farm on Dummerston hill.Francis Lynde met with a painful accident one day last week. He was trying to cut a grapevine and pulled with his hands on the vine. The roots broke so suddenly that Mr. Lynde fell backward on the ground, breaking two ribs in his right side. He is attended by a physician and according to last reports is suffering much from his injuries.Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Allbee received a very pleasant surprise Monday when all their children met unexpectedly in their home and only two of them knew the others were coming. Dr. and Mrs.

Martin of Northampton arrived by automobile before breakfast, Hugh Allbee from Brookline and Mrs. Park Hall and Mark Allbee from Townshend. Most of them returned home the same day.A letter received a few days ago from Charles M. Becker of Mexico told of the disturbed conditions in that country. A short time ago he and his assistant were at his mine when they were attacked by a band of bandits.
The rebel leader attempted to break down the door of their building and Mr.
Elliot, who is Mr. Becker's superintendent, shot him in the shoulder, frightening the rebels so that they left. Mr.
Becker's company thought it best to go away and accordingly left everything and went to Guadalajara, which is 15 hours' distance from the mine by mule back ride. They have remained in the city several weeks, hoping conditions would improve, so they could return to the mine, but fearing it would be a long time before they would be able to suppress the bandits, they decided they should be declared. The nearest seaport is Manzanillo, which is 65 miles by mule back ride from Guadalajara. Traveling is very dangerous, even by rail, and only day cars are run. Every American wants to get out of Mexico.

Years of Suffering

Catarrh and Blood Disease—Doctors Failed to Cure.Miss Mabel F. Dawkins, 1214 Lafayette St., Fort Wayne, Ind., writes:
"For three years I was troubled with catarrh and blood disease. I tried several doctors and a dozen different remedies, but none of them did me any good. A friend told me of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took two bottles of this medicine and was as well and strong as ever. I feel like a different person and recommend Hood's to any one suffering from catarrh."
Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsaparilla.
